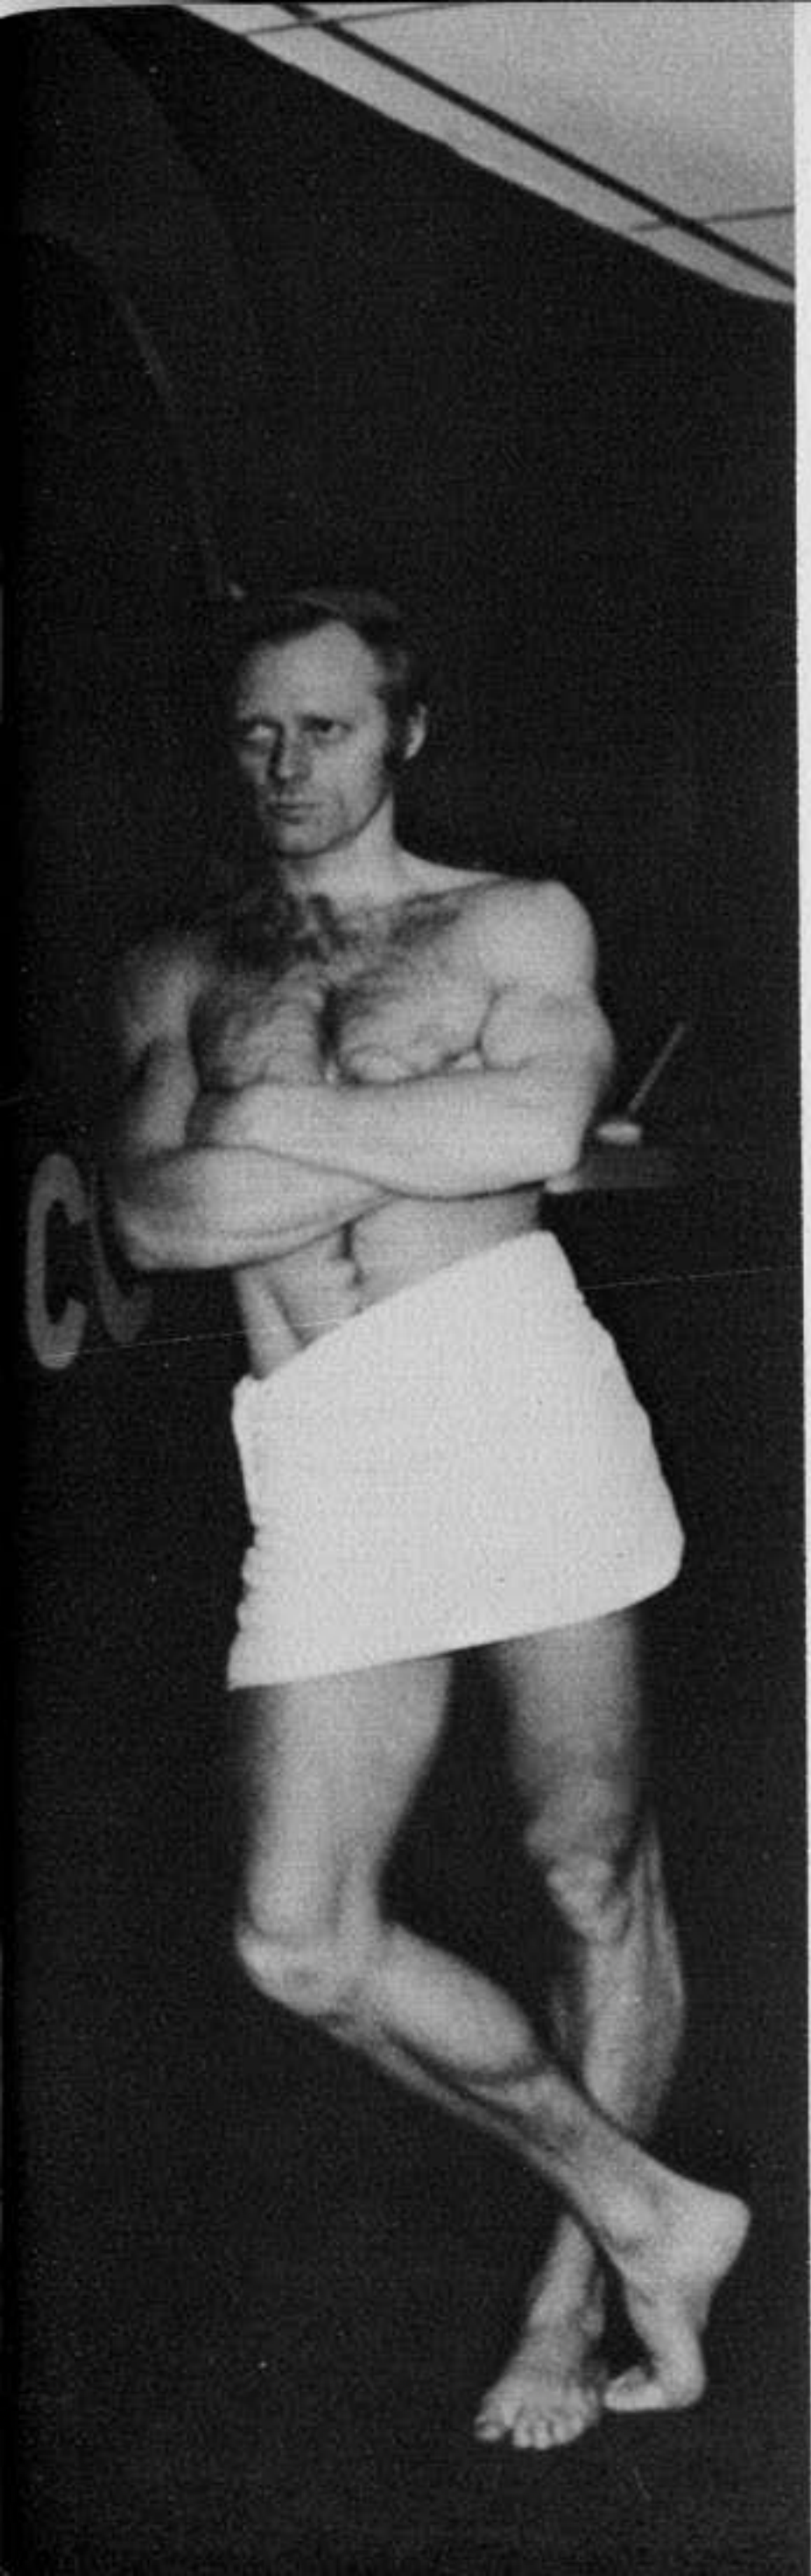
STEAMBATH

8 pages in color

MAN'S



Rare is the man among us who has not by now experienced the esoteric delights of the steambath! Found at one time only in the very largest of cities, this phenomenon has proliferated into the hinterlands until there remains hardly a city of any size that does not have its very own bathhouse, and "a night at the vapors" has become as common an occurrence as a trip to the local watering hole. Many, in fact, prefer the no-nonsense approach of the baths to the cat-and-mouse antics of most bars, where the fruits of hours of cruising may well be total frustration.

This, then, is Target's salute to the baths, and for the occasion we have teamed up BOYD WINNER, one of our most popular exclusive models, with ZACK, another favorite. (Incidentally, we've unanimously voted them the couple we'd most like to be trapped in a bathhouse with!) Follow them along their "steamy" adventure trail from meeting in the locker room through the sauna, steam room, showers, snack bar and, ultimately, a very private room —private, that is, except for the Target cameras, which seem to be everywhere these days!
